

Avizent News Archive

AVIZENT FEATURED IN INDUSTRY PUBLICATIONS, FALL 2009

An article written with the City of Phoenix, an Avizent client, appeared on the Claims magazine website on Nov. 5, 2009. The article entitled "Smooth Transitions: A Case Study For How to Plan a Change in Your Workers' Compensation Program" highlights the great experience the City had with Avizent's onboarding process. Click here to read the story.

An article by Vance Root, Executive Vice President and Chief Sales and Marketing Officer, is featured on the Risk & Insurance website. In his article, Root shared his perspective on the services risk managers should consider and the sessions to attend at the National Workers' Compensation & Disability Conference & Expo held November 18-20 in Chicago. The article entitled "Key Goals for NWCDC Attendees" appeared on the magazine's website on Nov. 1, 2009. Please click here to see the article.

Doug Markham, Executive Vice President of Avizent Managed Care, recently shared his comments on fighting fraud with Risk & Insurance. The article entitled "Fraud In-Depth Series (Part 3): How Gamed Comp Claims?" appeared online on Nov. 1, 2009 and is part of a series covering workers' comp fraud. Click here to read the article. Markham's comments were also included in "Fraud In-Depth Series (Part 1): Transparency of Evidence," which was the cover story in the magazine's Oct. 1, 2009 issue. The article discusses the positive impact of Evidence-Based Medicine on over-utilization and fraudulent practices within the healthcare industry. Please click here to see the article online.